

Chalmers Memorial Church Newsletter Easter 2011

From the Locum Minister:

Lent and Easter is a time when we feel like getting our homes in order and one of the tasks I have been putting off is the annual clearing out of clutter. It is amazing how things just accumulate, clothing, books, tools, discs and bits of this and bits of that. I have a garage that was meant to hold a car but is given over to bicycles, pieces of wood, games equipment, toys for the grandchild, bird food, Wellingtons and trainers, car and craft stuff and more besides.

Now much is still in use but some things are just taking up space and are of no use to me at all. I know I must make time to sort it all out.

Spring is traditionally a good time to take stock, to get rid of rubbish and shape things as you want them to be. In the same way the Christian time of Lent leading up to Easter is a time to look at our lives and Easter is an opportunity to give time to God, to focus on the deeper things of life, to check the direction we are taking and make a personal commitment.

Of course we have freedom to choose. We can hurt ourselves with our choices and hurt others too but we can also help others and find happiness and inner peace. Easter is a festival of life and we are invited to open ourselves to the love of God and travel in the light of Jesus Christ.

Late Extra – 27/03/11

Now I heard today at Church the news that the congregation are to hear a sole nominee preach on April 17th. I feel very happy that you have moved on to this important occasion but I also feel so grateful for the time we have been together. It was a tough winter for weather but I have really enjoyed my time with you. It has been spiritually uplifting and I have felt a blessing in the friendships and the challenge.

PRAYER DIARY

He has risen! He is not here! See the place where they laid him.

Mark 16 v. 6

Sunday: Thank you Heavenly Father for your unfailing love and mercy towards us, so much so that you sent Your only Son into this world to be our Saviour and Lord. We thank you Father for Jesus' life and example: for his death in our stead at Calvary and rejoice in His resurrection! Forgive us that we fail so often. Help us Father by the power of your Holy Spirit to truly love you with all our heart and love our neighbour as ourselves. In Jesus Name we pray. Amen.

Monday: Thank God for the Guild session now past, for all the speakers who have come, for all the fellowship enjoyed and for all the organisations that have been supported.

Tuesday: Give thanks for the work that has been undertaken by the Nominating Committee and pray for the Rev. Kristina Herbold-Ross as she preaches as sole-nominee on 17th April.

Wednesday: Intercede for the future of Scotland as the country goes to an election in May. Pray the people will take seriously their right to vote and be concerned and informed about political issues. Remember especially all the candidates who have put themselves up for election. Pray that they may have wisdom and integrity as they spell out their policies.

Thursday: Remember all teenagers who are at the moment studying and preparing for important exams which will determine their future. Pray for all teachers who encourage and support them. Remember all children looking forward to their Easter holidays that it may be a time of relaxation and fun.

Friday: Bring before God those in our Church fellowship who are going through difficult times at the moment with health problems. Pray for those who have been bereaved in recent months that they may be comforted and know God's peace.

Saturday: Continue to remember in our prayers all who have been devastated by events in Japan: the situation in so many countries in the Middle East and the on-going war in Afghanistan. Pray for members of the United Nations as they try their best to resolve situations and endeavour to bring peace and unity to so many countries.

Pray especially for all children who have been orphaned because of the earthquake and tsunami and children in countries where there is upheaval.

Thanks

Phemie Turnbull wishes to thank the Church for the beautiful flowers received after her recent stay in hospital.

Peter Stewart wishes to thank everyone for cards, flowers, prayers and visits during his stay in hospital and recuperation at home.

Janet Frame would like to thank the Church for the flowers received following her recent bereavement.

DAY OF COMMITMENT
SUNDAY 1st MAY

To assist us in our own 'internal review', we are going to use May as a time for renewal and recommitment culminating in special services on Sunday 1st May at 10.15am, 11am & 6.15pm

Office-bearers will be delivering to each member's household a leaflet and letter explaining it clearly, to help us review our own commitment to Christ in terms of the promises we once made. Please bring your completed response card in the small envelope you will receive with your invitation to communion, to one of the services on Sunday 1st May, our Day of Commitment. Further commitment cards are available from your Elder or Deacon, just ask.

OUR SOLE NOMINEE - The Reverend Kristina M. Herbold Ross

By now I am sure everyone is aware that the Nominating Committee have recommended the Reverend Kristina M Herbold Ross as our sole nominee and that she will preach at the 11.00 am service on 17 April. Please make a special attempt to attend the service to hear her preach. Immediately after the service members and adherents, whose names are on the Electoral Roll, will be invited to cast their vote in the hall.

By way of background information, Kristina was born and brought up in Germany, and studied language and literature before graduating with a degree in theology in 2004. She worked in various parishes before being ordained by the Lutheran Church of Hanover in 2008.

She moved to Scotland in 2009 with her minister husband who is now in the parish of Cockpen & Carrington, Lasswade & Rosewell - and she has been formally admitted to the Church of Scotland, having worked as Assistant Minister at Greyfriars Church, Edinburgh.

She has been working in East Lothian doing pulpit supply and holiday cover, while seeking a charge of her own. The committee were impressed with her enthusiasm and approach and are pleased to present her as our candidate to lead us into the future here in Chalmers.

When asked to introduce herself to you, Kristina said -

"I am delighted and honoured to be invited to preach as sole nominee for Chalmers Memorial Church. I am very much looking forward to meeting you and to preach in your beautiful church building."

"I am enthusiastic about worship – in the Sunday service and in our daily lives."

"Joy" and "seriousness" could describe my approach to ministry. 'Joy' about proclaiming the love of God to his people and being alongside them, and 'seriousness' in being aware of the weight of this message and the responsibility which comes with it."

"I detected the same joy and seriousness in the way the nominating committee went about their task and am confident that I could work well with you in ministering to the people of Cockenzie & Port Seton."

The Nominating Committee firmly believe that Kristina was by far the best candidate who applied for the position and having met with her on a number of occasions we were impressed with her enthusiasm and commitment and accordingly the Nominating Committee commend her to the Congregation.
